- Configurable account and notification setup

Recruiting top talent is critical for the success of any organization

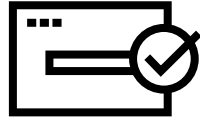

Integrating HireRight with Lever Hire optimizes recruiting efficiency and streamlines the hiring process, saving valuable time and money.

Lever Hire users have the ability to order any of HireRight's 200+ global background and drug testing services and receive results in real-time, all from within Lever Hire. The HireRight background check form is pre-populated with candidate information from Lever Hire reducing redundant data entry and driving administrative efficiency while improving the recruiter and candidate experience.

The integration is easy to implement, with no middleware or development required. Future solution enhancements help promote long-term ROI. HireRight has a team of experienced pre-sales and technical consultants that are dedicated to the integration solution and delivering an efficient implementation experience for you.

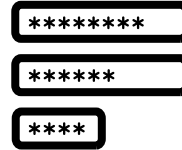

Our partnership allows customers to leverage a streamlined platform solution so they can focus more time on growing their teams faster and smarter. The integration is supported for clients on Lever Hire Enterprise, Professional, or Starter with the integration add-on.
